

GENIVI PROJECT PROPOSAL WORKSHEET

Please complete the below worksheet and send to oss-projects@mail.genivi.org. Questions may also be sent to the same email list.

The Proposal will be reviewed and a decision communicated as quickly as possible.

Your Information
Proposer name:
Proposer company:
Proposer email:
Project Information
Description: (Required) What does the code do? How is it related to IVI? Why is it relevant to GENIVI?
Committed Maintainer: (Required) If not you, provide name, contact details of person willing to serve as a project maintainer
Contribution Rights: (Required) Please indicate under which contribution model you are providing the code: GENIVI CLA (this applies only to those GENIVI members who have executed the Entity Contributor License Agreement see URL) or Certificate of Origin (for members and non-members see URL)
Project License: (Required) If already assigned to the code, please provide the FOSS license selected; if not already assigned,

GENIVI PROJECT PROPOSAL WORKSHEET

propose a preferred FOSS license
Community Interest: (Required) Indicate how many other developers are actively contributing or have indicated they would contribute to the project
GENIVI Compliance: (Optional) Indicate if the proposed code is a candidate for or already referenced in the GENIVI Compliance specification; leave blank if you don't know
Development Plan: (Optional) Indicate what features/functions you wish to see added to the code and why these features/functions are important to the project; Also indicate if the project aligns with an existing GENIVI Expert Group or other GENIVI Project
Current Project link: (Optional) If the project is already hosted and you wish to move it to GENIVI, provide the URL to the project	